25-1-2006

On a mention being made, the case is taken up.

On the last date of hearing when the case was called, counsel for the petitioner was not present and the case was adjourned.

Shri Dhani Ram Patel, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Satish Gupta, Dy. Govt. Advocate for the State of Chhattisgarh.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the matter relates to compassionate appointment. He further submits that the petitioner's father died on 31-12-1998. He also submits that the petitioner is entitled for compassionate appointment. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner states that for the present ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the respondent authorities to decide the representation of the petitioner.

The prayer is not opposed by the State counsel.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case the petitioner is directed to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of respondents alongwith a copy of the petition and this order within a period of three weeks from today and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within a period of four months from the date of receipt of representation. If the petitioner is entitled he be given compassionate appointment, if he is not entitled then speaking order be passed. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Consequently, I.A.No.256/05 & I.A.No.158/06 also stand disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
